Recreation Center

Use of the Recreation Center is included with your Lodging and Dining Package. Please bring your guest access card with you when visiting the Rec Center. See link below for more information.

Parking

All parking requires payment on the CU Boulder campus. To purchase a permit make sure you have the License Plate, State, Make, Model, Color of the car and contact Parking Customer Service Mon-Fri between 7:30 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. at 303-735-PARK (7275) to purchase an electronic permit with a credit card. You can also follow this link for daily or weekly short term parking options: <https://www.colorado.edu/pts/short-term-parking>

Park only in Lots or Zones designated with purchase.

Weather

Boulder is considered the high desert, with an altitude of 5,430 feet above sea level. This elevation ensures a mild climate with very little humidity in the summer and winter months. The warmest month is July with an average daytime temperature of 87 degrees Fahrenheit, but even then, you may need a sweater at night, as temperatures can dip quite low. Remember to bring clothing that can be layered for the cooler evenings. Sunscreen is important, as well. Staying hydrated is a must at this altitude, drink lots of water!
